

Constraints and Assumption

Each episode has a unique name that defines it

An episode can have only one director

Employees are defined by a unique PN, an employee can have multiple nicknames

Actor and directors derive from employee, they share the same attributes but are defined by their roles (relations)